* Lauren Andreach works en plein air in oils, and is academically trained in the classical, realist tradition. She attended the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, is an award-winning, exhibiting member of the Salmagundi Club, Mid-Atlantic Plein Air Painters, and the Oil Painters of America. Recent awards include Best in Show at the prestigious Paint Annapolis plein air competition, a 3-day annual event in Maryland. In 2009, she painted in Plein Air Easton, Sonoma Plein Air, and Wayne Plein Air. A student of master landscape painter John Phillip Osborne, she is practiced in the use of Osborne's palette. Her work is in many private collections and is exhibited year-round at the McBride Gallery in Annapolis, MD. ### notes:

1 Refund/Cancellation Policy Programs, classes, and events at the Middletown Arts Center have certain expenses related to them based on the expected enrollment. For this reason, full refunds cannot be issued unless they are requested two weeks prior to the first class except for extenuating circumstances at the discretion of the Director. In some cases, a partial refund or a class credit may be issued. Refunds are subject to a $5.00 processing fee. There will be NO refunds or credits for classes missed by the participant. A full refund will be issued by the Middletown Arts Center due to insufficient registration. Should a class be canceled due to inclement weather or instructor illness, a make-up class will be scheduled.

2 Member and Non-member rates relate to membership in the Middletown Township Cultural and Arts Council. The MTCAC is the non-profit 501c3 organization that operates the Middletown Arts Center and relies on membership dues, donations from individuals and businesses, tuitions and ticket sales to help bring art programs to the community. Memberships are annual from the date of enrollment.
